Count: 48 Wall: 4 Level: Phrased Intermediate

Choreographer: Michael Metzger - August 2019

Music: "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" by Julie Andrews and Dick Van Dyke

Count In: Start on "Supercali..." - approximately 0:02!

Pattern: A, B, A, A, B, A, A, B, tag1, A (with break), A, tag2/ending (It's easier than you think. I promise!)

Done with a partner. Begin dance facing each other (about 5-10 feet apart) - one facing the front of the room, one facing the back. In general you will want your partner slightly to your right - especially when you initiate your do-si-dos in Section B.

7, 8 Turn 1/8 left and step R to side while bending both knees (hold fists in front of you like you're holding Mary's parasol or Bert's cane - hands don't go down with your torso - keep them steady in the air), Straighten knees (hands remain steady in the air again) (9:00)

You will still be facing your partner. You will want that person slightly to your right (take smaller steps during the grapevine if necessary so you don't pass each other). Maintain the distance you had at the beginning of the dance.

The sixth time you do A the song will break on count 7 (Julie Andrews sings, "...or it could change your life!"). Freeze and hold your "out out" pose until the dialogue says, "And now me girl's me wife." At this point either bow or curtsy to your partner. Then come back up and get ready to start at the beginning of A after the man sings, "Sheeeeeee's..."
