STYLING OPTION

When the song finishes at the last part, there will be an extra count. Do a pose. Stomp right foot forward with right knee slightly bent (place weight slightly on right foot), place your right hand on your chest(means you are who you are!), stretch out left hand to left side with palm facing up (telling people to stop trying to change you!) Your body will lean slightly forward, head turn left while looking at your left hand (talk to my hand!)
